

WELCOME

The Western Bat Working Group would like to welcome you to Fort Collins, Colorado, at the edge of the Great Plains and the Rocky Mountains, where the 2017 Western Bat Working Group Biennial Meeting will be hosted. The meeting will be from April 11th to April 14th at the Fort Collins Hilton. Come to Colorado and enjoy the spring season, with access to Rocky Mountain National Park, Pawnee National Grasslands, tons of outdoor activities, vibrant and quaint downtown shopping and restaurants, and ample beer sampling in the heart of the “Napa Valley of Beer”. Our local hosts, Rob Schorr, Laura Ellison, Roger Rodriguez, Toni Piaggio, Jeremy Siemers and Kirk Navo have an exciting program planned. We look forward to toasting you in any of Fort Collins’ 20+ breweries (www.visitfortcollins.com).

Attention STUDENTS!

We have reduced costs for students that are willing to present their research at the WBWG 2017 meeting. See registration costs below. This applies to oral presentations from students, so get your abstracts together and get them in.
